ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL ONTARIO HOLSTEIN SUMMER SHOW!

Lindsay, ON July 28, 2009 – Judge Orville Schmidt of Ponoka, AB placed 236 head in an extremely deep show on Friday July 24, 2009.

After debating long and hard in his mature cow class, Orville selected Bridgeview Gibson Dottie as his 1st place Mature Cow and Grand Champion Cow. Dottie was bred and is owned by Brian Coleman of Brantford, Ontario. Reserve Champion cow went to Bruynland Storm Kendra, the second place Mature Cow. Kendra is owned by Pierre Boulet of Montmagny, Quebec, and was bred by Bruynland farm of London, Ontario. Orville's Intermediate Champion was Brainwave Miss Illectrify, a Calbrett-I H H Champion Senior 3 year old bred by Constance M Brain, Corndale Genetics, Roy Beattie and Robert & Tom Jefferson. Miss Illectrify is owned by Brain, Robert and Tom Jefferson and Progressive Dairy Tech Inter Inc.

The Premier Breeder banner went to Kingsway Holsteins of Hastings, Ontario. Reserve Breeder and Premier Exhibitor honours went to Crovalley Holsteins also of Hastings, Ontario. Reserve Premier Exhibitor was Ardross Holsteins of Caledonia, Ontario.

In the Junior Show, Schmidt selected his pair of Summer Yearlings for Grand and Reserve Junior Champion. Lorealey Wildman Fatima was Junior Champion for Dubeau of Ste Elizabeth, Quebec. Fatima was bred by Ferme Loreale S.E.N.C of St-Marc sur Richelieu, Quebec. Reserve champion was Kingsway Goldwyn Yen, bred by Kingway Holsteins of Hastings, ON and owned with Rob Heffernan and Pat Conroy.

Braedale Goldwyn and Wilcoxview Jasper, respectively, were Premier Sires of both the Junior and Senior shows.

Congratulations to all exhibitors and we look forward to another exceptional show in 2010!
